tributed not to a dangerous roadstead, but to the fact, that advantage was not taken of the premonitions so long before given of the approaching gale.

The A. H. Howland was 15 months out, and amounting to 25,000 lbs.

It is much to be regretted, for the underwriters sake, that the Governor was not allowed to carry out his purpose, and save the cargo and ship, if possible. Having heard many rumors in regard to the delay in saving property from the wreck, we have taken the trouble to see the Gov ernor, and learn from him, that on Tuesday he went with a large force of men and canoes, and found the ship abandoned by all but two sailors, whom his men rescued, by bringing them sshore through the surf on their backs. He took resession of the ship as salvor, and was saving spars, &c., and making arrangements to get out the oil, when he was warned off by the following notice.

"NOTICE. "All persons are hereby forbidden to go on board the ship Abram H. Howland, now lying on the reef dismasted, without permission from the Captain. Honolulu, Dec. 7, 1852.

As the ship had been deserted, the Governor doubtless had the right, hav it was his duty, to endeavor to save as much as possible from the wreck, 512 acres, and no one had a right to warn him off. He will undoubtedly be entitled to salvage, let the property be saved by whom it may, for he had first possession, which he retained by leaving natives on board, when
